

Follow me

I plan to catalog my journey by taking thousands of images, video, and even writing and composing a few songs along the way. Then, depending on internet availability, will be sending and posting these images and media and updating my web site on a regular basis.

On-Line you will be able to follow my adventures and track my progress as I post these images and update an interactive map.

How you can be a part

I have already procured a group of sponsors who have generously donated in a variety of ways and I am currently seeking more individuals and businesses to help make this trip a success.

In becoming a sponsor your name and/or business will be proudly displayed on my web site which will be hopefully seen by thousands of people.

Please visit my web site for more details and information.

Visit me

With the convenience of the internet I hope to intertwine all of my passions and talents and make this trip a truly entertaining and enlightening multimedia experience

As a musician, writer, and photographer, I hope to capture the magic of this great land and bring it into the hearts of everyone.

With thousands of images in my archives and hundreds already posted on my web site, you can also enjoy as I share them with you.

Please feel free to visit and browse my web site and view my images and artwork from the past few years. I entertain feedback so be sure to email me and let me know what you think.

The Great American Adventure

Take a virtual tour with me as I traverse this great country of ours, and share all the natural beauty and wonders that it has to offer

By Motorcycle

Beginning at our nation's capital and heading north, the map you see here displays a path, in red, of the proposed route that I plan to follow.

This plan is, as it states, simply a "proposed" route and will most likely change dramatically throughout my trip.

I encourage anyone to contact me with recommendations and suggestions of places to see and explore along my journey.

A Few Goals

With a primary goal of seeing and sharing as much of the country as possible, I plan to cover over 25,000 miles and cross 49 states, including parts of Canada and Mexico.

A secondary goal is to raise money for the preservation and conservation of our wildlife and natural resources.

nature.org

Economic development is constantly encroaching on our natural resources. I feel that it is our inherent and utmost responsibility to make a stand now, for our planet as well as our future generations.

So with this in mind I will be donating proceeds from my trip to the Nature Conservancy. An organization with a mission to preserve the plants, animals and natural communities that represent the diversity of life on Earth by protecting the lands and waters they need to survive.
